

Focus Awards Level 3 Award in Assessing Vocationally Related Achievement (RQF)

Overview

The Level 3 Award in Assessing Vocationally Related Achievement is considered to be an entry qualification for people looking to assess learners on accredited courses. Most training centres would expect that you have this assessor qualification before you start assessing in the FE and HE sectors. You are not required to have any prior qualification or experience to start this level 3 course. This NVQ (National Vocational Qualification) assessor course will assist you regardless of your subject expertise, whether its security training or first aid. The course is accredited by UK OFQUAL, and is delivered 100% online.

Scope of this Qualification

This course will qualify you to assess learners in a classroom setting or a simulated environment. It is perfect for you if you are involved in a setting where activities such as tests, portfolios, presentations, quizzes, question-and-answer sessions, simulations, or role-playing, etc., are required. Appropriate for aspirants working in a conventional school or college environment. This course is also suitable for vocations in which the assessments are conducted in a learning environment. This includes assessors for functional skills, corporate learning and development, first aid, training & teaching institutes, private security SIA trainers etc.

Duration and Delivery

This course is designed to be completed online at the pace that suits you the best. This fast track level 3 assessor course can take as little as 4 days or up to 4 months to become an assessor. The level 3 assessor qualification is delivered through our virtual learning environment (VLE). Our online tutor support is there to facilitate you to achieve your success rate accordingly.

Assessment and Verification

All units within this assessor qualification are internally assessed by our qualified assessors and externally verified by the awarding organisation. The assessment takes the form of written assignments and demonstration of assessment skills through video recording and portfolio of evidence, detailed guidance for which will be provided by the tutor.
